On Monday afternoon May 13th, one day before the start of the Texprocess and Techtexil Fairs, the IAF will organize an exclusive and inspiring member event that offers you the perfect prelude to a Texprocess/Techttextil visit. The program consists of a networking lunch in a well selected location in Frankfurt, transport arranged to the Frankfurt fairground where IAF offers presentations by Giuseppe Gherzi of Gherzi consultants and David Schmelzeisen of Aachen University's ITA institute, followed by an informal reception. Gherzi and Aachen's ITA institute are both important names in the area of industry 4.0.

By participating in this event, you will be offered:

- ➔ A network lunch in a nice location in Frankfurt and cocktails and drinks allowing you to meet again your unique network of industry peers.
- ➔ A mini conference with 2 top speakers going beyond an explanation of what the technology is but instead explaining what a garment manufacturer and what a small to medium sized brand can and should actually do tomorrow, alone and together, to implement new technology.
- ➔ A very valuable addition to your Texprocess/Techttextil fair visit which can start the next day.
- ➔ Guided tour at ITA Aachen's demonstration set up at the Texprocess/Techttextil Fairs
